

don't guess

WWW.CALPOISON.ORG

be sure

Announcing the first-ever bilingual text messaging service for tips, facts and news about poisoning prevention!

Text MCHA1 for English to 69866

Text MCHA2 for Spanish 69866

You will receive one text a week. The service is free, though standard rates may apply from your carrier.

Can you tell the difference between medicines and candy?
Play Pills vs. Candy at www.pillsuscandy.org

On Facebook? Become a fan of California Poison Control and test your knowledge of common poison-related questions, myths, folklore and incidents in popular culture with "Gee, that tastes funny!" and "Stop it, you're killing me!"

You can also share a poison prevention message with a friend by customizing and sending an e-card at www.calpoisonecards.org

For fast, free and expert help or information 24/7 in case someone has touched, tasted or breathed in something harmful, call 1-800-222-1222

POISON ACTION LINE
1-800-222-1222

