KP Child Health Plan -CLOSING

Effective July 17, 2009

Good afternoon Community Partners and KP Colleagues-

Please find attached a memo from Angela Coron, Managing Director of Community Benefit in Southern California, announcing the closure to new enrollment in KP Child Health Plan in Los Angeles County effective Friday, July 17, 2009.

All new KPCHP applications received in our office in Oakland, CA after July 17th, will be returned to sender.

Agencies who submit KP Child Health Plan applications through One E App, will not have the ability to submit them after July 17th.

KP Child Health Plan will now be closed indefinitely to new membership in all Southern California service areas.

A future reopen date has not been determined.

Thanks to all of you for the work you have done in promoting Kaiser Permanente's Child Health Plan (KPCHP) in Los Angeles County.
