very disappointing this is happening at a time we should be doubling down on improving maternal health care

11:07:53 From Marta Garcia to Liz Ramirez, She/her - MCHA(direct message):

Hi Liz, this question is off topic. Have you heard that DPSS offices no longer take calls for advocates? I was given an admin email for two district offices at this point. Is there a list that will have all admin (advocate email addresses) for all district offices?

11:11:38 From Liz Ramirez, She/her - MCHA to Marta Garcia(direct message):

I have not heard about DPSS not taking calls from advocates, but I do know that they are trying to make work a centralized email for each district. The latest liaison listing only lists the district email but I would still include the dpss staff email, from an old list.
