- Proof of Income and proof of Los Angeles County residency (an I.D., utility bill, rent receipt or post-marked U.S. mail may be used to prove residency. In some cases an affidavit may be allowed).

What services are offered?

- MHLA covers primary care services, medications, lab services and tests.
- Specialty care and in-patient hospital care are also covered under MHLA and must be accessed at an LA County DHS facility.
- Substance Abuse Treatment

- Mental Health Services

Where do people get services?

- Primary care services are provided at Los Angeles County Community Partner clinics. For a list of Community Partner clinics visit:
<http://dhs.lacounty.gov/wps/portal/dhs/mhla/findaclinic>

MHLA members must choose a Community Partner clinic as their medical home. Members are allowed to change their medical home once every 12 months with certain exceptions.

Specialty and in-patient hospital services are provided at Los Angeles County Department of Health Services clinics and hospitals. For a list of DHS hospitals and clinics visit <http://dhs.lacounty.gov/wps/portal/dhs/>

Substance Abuse Treatment services can be accessed by calling the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health line at 1-888-742-7900 where you will be transferred to the closest Community Assessment Service Center or participants can be referred by their Medical Home Clinic.

Mental Health Services in the MHLA program are provided either at the participants medical home clinic or at the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health (DMH), depending on what the participant needs. To access the Department of Mental Health Access Center call 1-800-854-7771, or visit the DMH website at dmh.lacounty.gov

Where do people apply?

- At a Community Partner Clinic. For more information visit the MHLA website: <http://dhs.lacounty.gov/wps/portal/dhs/mhla> Or call 1-844-744-6452.
- Applications must be started and completed within the same calendar month. If not, the application will be voided and the applicant may be liable for the cost of visits received that month.
- Effective February 1, 2023, eligibility for MHLA program members, re-adds, and new applicants will be extended until January 31, 2024. Moving forward, MHLA participants will no longer be required to submit an annual renewal.

What do people do if they have trouble getting services?
