The Family PACT Program

The Family PACT program is a state and federally funded program to provide comprehensive family planning services, including treatment for sexually transmitted diseases, to eligible low-income men and women in California.

Who is eligible?

- Women and men who are residents of California under 55 (women) or 60 (men) years of age who are not sterilized.

What is the income limit?

- Family PACT is available to women and men with income at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level who are not covered by Medi-Cal (unless their Medi-Cal has a high share-of-cost), Medicare, or any other health insurance that covers family planning. Applicants self-declare their income.

Effective from April 1, 2026, through March 31, 2027

HOW MANY PEOPLE ARE IN YOUR FAMILY?	FAMILY PACT GROSS MONTHLY INCOME LIMITS 200%FPL
1	$ 2,660
2	$ 3,608
3	$ 4,554
4	$ 5,500
5	$ 6,448
6	$ 7,394
Additional person added:	$948

What does it cost?

- There is no cost to women or men who qualify for the program.

What is the resource limit?

- Resources are not counted.

Does immigration status matter?

- No, but an applicant must be a California resident.

What papers are needed to apply?

- None

Where can women apply for Family PACT, and how long does it take to get approved?

- Applicants apply at Family PACT provider offices and are considered eligible after application. Coverage is good for 1 year, but eligibility must be reconfirmed at each visit (the provider should ask the woman/man whether their income remains the same, etc.). After one year, another application must be completed.

What services are provided?

- Family PACT provides contraceptive education and counseling, family planning services (all methods of contraception, including male and female sterilization and emergency contraception), pregnancy testing, limited infertility services, and sexually transmitted disease screening and treatment.
Please Note: Screening mammography is not a Family PACT Benefit. Uninsured or underinsured female clients in need of screening mammography may be referred to the Department of Health Care Services (DHCS), Every Woman Counts (EWC) program. Women apply through the toll-free number 1-800-511-2300.

How do women and men get services?

- By making an appointment with a Family PACT provider. Women and men may call 1-800-942-1054 (English and Spanish) for the name of a provider or clinic in their area.

Does using the Family PACT program hurt a person's chances of adjusting their immigration status?

- No, using Family PACT or other health services should not affect the person's ability to adjust their immigration status.

What can someone do if they have a problem getting services from Family PACT?

- Call the Medi-Cal fraud line (for provider fraud) at 1-800-822-6222 and complain, or the Office of Family Planning at 1-916-654-0357, or the Health Consumer Center of Los Angeles at 1-800-896-3202.
